

Board Member Candidate's e-flyer

First Name: Alpha Oumar

Last Name: Sow

Why do you want to become an ASAF Board member?

This is to bring new ideas for better functioning of ASAF at the level of all member countries on the continent. This requires the effective involvement of all working groups in any potential project. Hence the need to be in the decision-making and strategic orientation body of ASAF.

I am very passionate about sharing and creating sustainable initiatives. My commitment and dedication to ASAF is unambiguous. It's a feeling of accountability for me. I am determined to use my know-how to achieve ASAF's objectives. It is an ambition that revolves around collaboration based on transparency and innovation.

What is your vision for ASAF?

My vision for ASAF is:

Encourage academic circles in their participation in various mobility programs in Africa. A range of communications and events will be put in place with the collaboration of public decision-makers;

Connect a certain number of universities by region to facilitate exchanges in terms of research and innovation;

Raise awareness among students by providing focal points for broad information on the incentives granted by mobility programs.

Therefore ASAF will have a leading role in achieving student mobility objectives.

What skills do you bring to the position and what contributions do you want to make?

I have always participated in student associations during my school and university career. With this experience in a school environment, I am able to be the ideal person to be on the ASAF board of directors. My contribution will be to revitalize the members of ASAF through the different structures in strict compliance with the statutes of ASAF. I will listen attentively to any proposal and I will try to examine it in council. No idea or proposal will be omitted. We have a proactive organization; therefore, consensus or voting will be required.

I remain available and open to everyone. A suggestion box will be open for everyone and notices of project proposals will be put to the working groups for consideration

Why should you be elected as an ASAF Board member?
